New logo of Allard University unveiled

Pune, May 5 (UNI) AICTE chairman Dr T G Sitaram released new logo of Allard University at 'Third Summit on Vision 2047 in Education' conference organised by the Centre for Education Growth & Research in Delhi on Sunday.

Dr Sitaram, NAC president Prof Anil Sahastrabuddhe and Allard University founder & chancellor Dr L R Yadav were present on this occasion, said a press release.

While speaking at unveiling function, Dr Sitaram suggested that in today's environment, education sector should work keeping in mind demands of industrial sector and said in such a situation, the Allard University is first in the country to enter the field of education with nearly 80 per cent practical education.

Taking a commendable step in the field of education is a big thing and the same will definitely be beneficial for providing employment to students, he said.

Apart from this, those interested in start-ups can build their future, he added.

Speaking on occasion, D Yadav said that Allard University will now promote academic excellence based on five pillars of new vision, leadership, vigilance, hard work and dedication.
